

Michelle Kimbrough, LCSW is the Services Manager for the Travis County Family Drug Treatment Court—Parenting In Recovery program, a nationally recognized Peer Learning Court program. Michelle has worked for this program for the last 18 years. She is a licensed clinical social worker with a B.A. in Psychology and an M.S.S.W. in Social Work from UT at Austin. She also has experience working for Child Protective Services for 6 years. In her current role, she has supported the creation of program policies/ procedures and worked within the multi-disciplinary team to expand and develop the program utilizing best practices. She has also managed four different state and federal grants.